Re: Levin v. Bank of New York, et al.
Case No. 09 Civ. 5900

Dear Judge Patterson:

We represent third-party defendant [REDACTED] in the above-referenced action. We write to respectfully request a one-day extension of [REDACTED] deadline to file its opposition papers to those submitted by the Judgment Creditors, styled as motion for partial summary judgment. [REDACTED] papers are currently due Monday, June 23, 2014, and thus if this request were to be granted would be due Tuesday, June 24.

As the Court may recall, [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] dedicated to improving and advancing [REDACTED]. Among its other responsibilities, it organized and oversaw [REDACTED], and it remains deeply involved in [REDACTED].

As a result, [REDACTED] key personnel are heavily engaged in [REDACTED], away from their offices in [REDACTED]. In order to facilitate their full participation in the litigation, it would be helpful if the Court would permit the one-day extension described above. [REDACTED] would of course request that the Judgment Creditors' reply deadline also be extended by one day, from July 7 to July 8, to avoid shortening their response time.

Counsel for the Greenbaum and Acosta Judgment Creditors have no objection to this request. We have reached out to counsel for the Levin and Heiser Judgment Creditors but have not yet received a response (we note that counsel for the Levin Judgment Creditors are on the West Coast, and thus three hours behind New York time). If either notes an objection we will telephone chambers and, if the Court so directs, follow up with a confirming letter.

Please find enclosed a redacted copy of this letter, which will be served on all counsel of record consistent with the Court's rules of practice.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric J. Snyder
